Dear Ms Creed

Re: Expired Contract - Gardening

Following our telephone conversation of 6 November 2009, I am writing to formally advise you that the Contract between Care and Repair (Stroud) and The Royal British Legion has expired (August 2009) and that The Royal British Legion will no longer provide any funding for this to continue.

As you know, the Gardening Scheme was a trial for 3 years and evidence shows us that it has been very successful. However, the trial has also highlighted that it is too costly for the Legion to continue funding.

I am sure you will agree that in recent months we have worked closely with a view to identifying other options. Sadly, we were unable to identify a suitable option.

May I take this chance to pass on my sincere thanks to you and your colleagues for all the hard work that has been carried out on our behalf. I would also, like to thank you personally for your understanding and friendship.

Please be assured that should The Royal British Legion re-consider the possibility of introducing a Gardening Scheme we will contact you.

Yours sincerely

The Legion's mission is to safeguard the welfare, interests and memory of those who are serving or have served in the Armed Forces.
